Powerhouse Organization Moms for Liberty Launches New Chapter in Carroll County, Iowa

Grass roots organization Moms for Liberty has announced the launch of a new, local chapter in Carroll County, IA as the latest addition in their impressive and growing list of chapters. Now established in 42 states, Moms for Liberty has organized 240 local chapters with over 100,000 members since their inception in January of 2021. Parents have felt increasingly frustrated and concerned by the actions of their local government and school districts. Moms for Liberty helps these concerned parents organize and amplify their voices to achieve the most important of goals: results. Parents, grandparents, educators, and community members are joining the organization in droves to exercise their rights while defending and shaping liberty in local government.

Amy Dea, Chapter Chair of Carroll County of Moms for Liberty, “We have heard from countless parents regarding their frustration and the disconnect in what’s being taught in schools versus our homes. We feel the school system has far overreached their role and purpose by crossing from educational boundaries into parental boundaries. Iowa currently has Moms for Liberty chapters in 5 counties Carroll, Linn, Polk, Story, and Warren”.

Moms for Liberty gives these parents an avenue to turn their frustration into action by demonstrating strength in numbers. Moms for Liberty does not shy away from government intimidation tactics as they engage elected officials on key issues that impact the everyday lives of families. The organization works to empower parents and they are committed to holding elected leaders accountable while also focusing on preserving crucial, founding principles of our nation: limited government, personal responsibility, and individual liberty. Moms for Liberty has already been successful in achieving results in their growing movement that is sweeping across the nation while working to recapture the rights that many parents feel are under constant attack. The Carroll County Chapter of Moms for Liberty hosted their first meeting on June 29th, 2022. During this meeting they discussed SEL (Social and Emotional Learning), inappropriate reading material in the school libraries, and supporting quality candidates for the school board election in November 2023.
